

Well it's only a matter of time before you lose me
But you can love me today
Your love's a meal and I'm still at the table
But I've already paid

But my glass is half full and one foot's out the door
Though the other one's walkin' away
It's only a matter of time before you lose me
But you can love me today

Well it's only a matter of time before you lose me
But you can love me today
Like the pair of socks that your grandma bought
For your twenty-first birthday

You said I left 'em right here right next to my beer
And the doggie is wagging his tail
It's only a matter of time before you lose me
But you can love me today

If you'd loved me right the first time
I wouldn't be inclined to run
'Cuz I love your kissin' but there's something missing
And I'm this close to done

But I'm here today to love you
And we're still having fun
And if you play it right tonight baby
Tomorrow might never come

Well it's only a matter of time before you lose me
So come on what may
But you'll be sayin' then I remember when
O those were the days
You'll be reminiscing about my kissin
Sayin' how did I let her get away
It's only a matter of time before you lose me
But you can love me today

If you'd loved me right the first time
I wouldn't be inclined to run
'Cuz I love your kissin' but there's something missing
And I'm this close to done

But I'm here today to love you
And we're still having fun
And if you play it right tonight baby
Tomorrow might never come

x2
